Last Updated Tuesday, 29 March 2011

Do you need a professional freelance journalist or writer? Someone who listens carefully and translates your particular requirements into the words you need - and can get the job done to deadline?

I'm an established business writer, freelance journalist and online writing specialist based in New Zealand. I have a Bachelor of Commerce and write for a number of publications and corporate clients, both in New Zealand and overseas.

As a freelance journalist I've won several awards for my business and online writing.

But, you don't have to take my word for it.

Here's what some of my editors have to say: "Sharon is an excellent writer and editor." - Manoah Esipisu, Deputy Director of Communications, Commonwealth Secretariat.

"Sharon Davis is the consummate professional. I can get on with my own schedule without a second thought, as I know that Sharon's work will be properly researched, tightly written and delivered to deadline. Sharon is an outstanding resource for anyone requiring a professional freelance writer." - Clive Lotter. "Sharon Davis has written many articles and features for Sawubona, South African Airways in-flight magazine. Her writing is insightful, entertaining and impeccably researched. She sticks to tight word counts and deadlines. I personally rate her amongst the finest of Sawubona's internationally respected pool of freelance writers and journalists." - Mario d'Offizi (more testimonials here)
